

United Way of Wyoming Valley

Rose Brader

Community Service Award

Nomination Form

(Submissions due March 31, 2016)

The Rose Brader Community Services Award is presented in honor of Rosalie Brader who served as Director of Labor Participation for United Way of Wyoming Valley and shared her commitment to community service through her extensive volunteer efforts with numerous health and human service organizations in the Wyoming Valley.

Nominees must be 18 years of age and have performed volunteer service within United Way of Wyoming Valley's geographic area, which is all of Luzerne County with the exception of the Greater Hazleton Area. Nominees' community service must have been performed in a volunteer capacity within the last ten years and could have been provided for any individual, group, organization, etc. and is not limited to those who have volunteered with United Way of Wyoming Valley or its participating agencies.

Current United Way Board members are not eligible for nomination.

A judging committee will consist of volunteers representing United Way's Board of Directors, Labor Participation Committee, Community Impact Committee, and a Participating Agency. The award will be presented at the United Way Day of Caring Breakfast and Annual Awards Event.

For questions or more information, please contact Kathy Bozinski at United Way of Wyoming Valley at: kbozinski@unitedwaywb.org

Please complete and return the Nomination Form below no later than March 31, 2016
